

“Imagine... You wake up... You open your eyes and you're like that... How did I get here?”

Inspired by the true story of a young offender from Glasgow, a 15-year-old who had committed a violent crime, this short play was part of the National Theatre's 'New Connections' programme which commissions plays about and for young people and was presented to critical acclaim at the Royal National Theatre.

In 'BLACKOUT', we discover through a series of flashbacks, how one individual found themselves in a jail cell, accused of attempted murder.

St Clement's High School & One Act Theatre Company are proud to present 'BLACKOUT' by Davey Anderson.

This performance will be the second from St Clement's theatre company:

'One Act Theatre Company'

The performance will also include physical theatre work created by the actors, under the guidance of Frantic Assembly Theatre Company.

We would like to invite you to join our 13 actors and our school, as they perform 'BLACKOUT' at the King's Lynn Arts Centre on Tuesday 23rd of April @ 7pm.

As a school, we are committed to offering our students experiences and opportunities that will enrich their lives and their learning as young people. We hope that you will be a part of this and join us at The Arts Centre on the 23rd of April.

Thank you for your support and we hope you enjoy the performance.
