Temporary changes to the school day

To accommodate the GCSE examination times, we will need to adjust the timings of our school day, temporarily. Some pupils, who rely on routine can sometimes find this difficult so I am communicating these changes ahead of the changes being made.

From the 9th May until 17th June the school will break for lunch one hour earlier than normal as explained below. No other changes are being made. The start and end times of the day and morning routines remain unaffected. Pupils who usually access the Hive during break and lunch will still be able to.
